* Passover always occurs on Abib 15-21, and Resurrection Day / First Fruits always on Abib 23.
Flexible dates are Ascension Day (First Fruits +40 days) and Pentecost (+50 days, both inclusive counts) in the month of Sivan.
The beginning of a year moves according to the first Crescent Moon.

A biblical year starts in the days or weeks after the barley is ripening (at least green in its head, with another ~4 weeks until First Fruits, in order to ripen from green to golden ears), precisely on the morning after the sighting of the next New Moon thereafter (first sliver of the Crescent Moon = Waxing Crescent Moon; not to be confused with the Dark Moon which is often erroneously called 'New Moon').

 -1	New Moon (Crescent Moon / Waxing Crescent) (First New Moon on the day / after the corn is ripe)	Apr2	Mar22	Apr9	Mar30	Mar20	Apr8	Mar27
1	New Year (New Moon +1 day)	Apr3	Mar23	Apr10	Mar31	Mar21	Apr9	Mar28

► See also the Moon Phases Calendar for the definition of the New Moon.

A biblical year is originally 360 days, and one month 30 days long. Most probably after the flood things began to shift, and today we have slightly longer years and a mix of 29/30 days per month (lunar month = 29.53 days), which also periodically causes a 13th month between Adar (12) and Abib (1).

A biblical week revolves around the Weekly Sabbath and the days in between are simply counted as numbers 1-6 following the Weekly Sabbath (1st Day = Sunday et al.).

An ordinary biblical day starts at sunrise (proof texts are 1Sam 19:11, Lev 22:29–30, Num 11:32, Mat 28:1, Mar 27:45, Luk 24:29, Joh 20:19 and Act 4:3), not at sunset as Mainstream Judaism teaches based on an erroneous generalization of the 7 Sabbaths of Sabbaths of which at least two start at sunset (Passover & Atonement), –independently– of the rhythm of an ordinary day or Weekly Sabbath. This erroneous timing has caused a vast confusion, because an estimated 90+% of calendars is based on this premise.

► See also the study 'Creation' with more details and specific Bible verses related to the basic calendar.

► See also the study 'CHRISTOS · Harmonization of Passover Chronology · Refutation of Fast-Track Trial' for the definition of the Resurrection Day and the First Fruits, initiating the count towards Ascension Day (+ 40 days) and Pentecost (+ 50 days).

► See also 'Discernment' with the reason why we are not bound to celebrate the 7 Sabbaths of Sabbaths and modern feasts such as 'Christ-mas' or the pagan New Year.
